

A member of the I-84 Danbury Team engages State Representative Bob Godfrey and a member of the public during a recent Open House.

I-84 Danbury Team members explore the project area with a member of the public.

The I-84 Danbury Team and members of the public gather to view an aerial drone video of the project area.

A member of the public completes a Comment Form, providing suggestions to the I-84 Danbury Project Team.

A member of the public fills out a Project Survey, sharing her thoughts on how she perceives travel in and along the project area.

Share your ideas!

One of three comment walls at a recent Open House allowed the public to share their ideas with the Project Team.

Share your ideas!

I-84 Danbury Project

The Environment comment wall provided the Project Team with valuable insight on many environmental issues like noise, air quality, and wetlands.

The I-84 Danbury Team and members of the public gather to view maps and boards on environmental factors like noise, air quality, and wetlands.